Dr. Marit Veeber qualified from the Estonian University of Life Sciences in 2010. After working in Germany as a general practitioner and in England as an emergency vet, she returned to her native Estonia where she currently works as a general practitioner in a small animal clinic. Dr. Veeber joined EVECCS in 2014 and became the Society's social media responsible soon afterwards. In 2017, she took over as the Chair of the EVECCS PR Committee.
