

Ingrid Putcuyps

Ingrid graduated in 1989 from Ghent University as Doctor in Veterinary Medicine.

During her last year as a student and the year after she did an 8 months externship at the Antwerp Zoo. The following 7 years Ingrid worked in different small animal practices before starting her own first opinion and specialty practice Clos Fleuri in 1996.

From 1995 to 2014 she worked part-time as a clinical instructor in ultrasound and radiography at the Medical Imaging Department of the Veterinary Faculty of UGhent.

Since February 2012 Ingrid is co-owner of the 24/7 Emergency and Specialty Clinic "Hond en Kat". Her main activities consist of specialized ultrasound, cardiology, thoracic diseases and ECC.

Since 2017 Ingrid is a member of the scientific committee of the EVECC congress.