

Marie Lybaert

I graduated in Liège in 2003, and went to work as an Emergency Practitioner in the Clinique Vétérinaire Champ du Roi in Brussels where I developed the Emergency and Hospitalization Department. I am still currently managing the department, with help from Dr Virginie Rossillon, and have consultations in Cardiology, my second passion.