

Daria Starybrat

DVM PGCert MVetMed DACVECC DECVECC MRCVS
Senior Lecturer in Small Animal Emergency and Critical

University of Edinburgh, The Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies and The Roslin Institute, Easter Bush Campus, Midlothian, Scotland

Daria earned her degree in veterinary medicine from Wroclaw University of Environmental and Life Sciences in Poland, before gaining a valuable experience in both first opinion and referral small animal practices. She then pursued a 3-year residency in Emergency and Critical Care at the Royal Veterinary College in the UK.

A Diplomate of both the American and European Colleges of Emergency and Critical Care (DACVECC, DECVECC), Daria is also an RCVS Recognised Specialist in her field.

Daria currently works as a Senior Lecturer in Small Animal Emergency and Critical Care at the Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies in Edinburgh, where she's passionate about teaching and mentoring both undergraduate and postgraduate veterinary students.

As a member of the local organising committee for the 23rd EVECC Congress, Daria is excited to be involved in bringing this event to life. She is looking forward to welcoming delegates to Edinburgh in June 2026 - with Scotland's stunning scenery, rich history, and warm hospitality, it's going to be a great place to connect and share ideas.